This breakfast/brunch/tea/midnight snack recipe was a classic from my childhood. While the “dippy egg” part of the title may be self-evident, our dear American readers may not be aware that in some other parts of the English speaking world, bread sliced up into thin strips are referred to as “ soldiers .”. All you need to make this basic dish are some eggs, bread and a kettle of boiling water; anything else is a garnish and completely up to you.
