Real estate reality shows like Flip or Flop make it seem as though all you need to successfully flip houses is a little cash and a lot of guts. Well, you do need both of those things, but there's a lot more to it. If you're just starting out in house flipping, here are the 5 essential rules for success:

House Flipping 101: 5 Essential Rules for Beginners

House flipping is when a real estate investor buys houses and then sells them for a profit. In order for a house to be considered a flip, it must be bought with the intention of quickly reselling. The time between the purchase and the sale often ranges from a couple months up to a year.

How to Flip a House | DaveRamsey.com

One important rule in house flipping is to never over-improve a property. Research similar properties in the area to determine the fair market value for the house you're flipping, and then plan your repairs and renovations to improve the property to that point or slightly better. You're likely to have trouble selling a $350,000 property in an area where the best houses are selling for $275,000.
