The Lord Almighty—, he is the King of glory" (Psalm 24:7-10). The Hebrew word translated "glory" in Psalm 24 is kabod, which means "weight," but it is used figuratively, as in "his argument carries weight" or "the content of that book is weighty,.". Kabad carries a connotation of solemnity and power. Calling God the "King of Glory" means He is the most awesome, most powerful king and should be taken seriously.
