Light of the World is a phrase Jesus used to describe himself and his disciples in the New Testament. The phrase is recorded in the Gospels of Matthew and John. It is closely related to the parables of Salt and Light and Lamp under a bushel.

Light of the World - Wikipedia

Just as He came as the Light of the world, He commands us to be "lights," too. In Matthew 5:14-16 we see believers depicted as the light of the world. Just as the moon has no light of its own, reflecting the light of the sun, so are believers to reflect the Light of Christ so that all can see it in us.

The Lord is my light and my salvation . . . —Psalm 27:1. Under the picture of Peter Milne, hanging in the church he founded on the little New Hebrides island of Nguna, these words are found: "When he came, there was no light. When he died, there was no darkness." When Christ came into the world, there was no light.

"The Light and Life of the World"

Jesus is the Light. The light of Jesus conquers darkness in every way: 1) It gives us guidance and a clear path: Psalms 119:105 says, "Your word is a light to my feet and a light unto my path.:". 2) Sin and danger are overcome: John 1:4-5 says, "In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.
